Chicago Tribune.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 1865.

THE NEWS.

The large influx of paper's Tuesday considerably over 40,000—was extended long before it ceased passed. To meet all people would have begun to wait in the streets several hours, and, as it is, a few readers will possibly find a little of the news in the Tribune a trifle stale this morning. To supply such orders we have printed an extra edition of the TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, containing a full list of the names of those who purchased on Tuesday. Persons who have ordered papers to be sent to them will find their names in the list. Back numbers of the TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, containing a full list of the names of those who purchased on Tuesday, will be sent to any address for 10 cents each.

Major-General Hooker, who accompanied the remains of the late President to this city, reached a telegram from his War Department, ordering Admiral Dahlgren, commanding him to return to Washington instantly, to take charge of the defenses of the capital, in person of Gen. Augur, who is in command of the Southern, and in the city to muster Johnson, arrested, Booth, Surratt, Ocdin, Clason, and other prominent citizens. He took the train at 10 o'clock for Washington. We understand that eighty prisoners will be sent to Washington to-day, one hundred and seven arrested yesterday, and from 200 to 400, in all, will be sent to Washington. Provost-Marshal-General Fry, who is in charge of the conspirators, has left for Washington. Gen. Augur, it is reported, will be relieved from the command of the Southern District, and Gen. Hancock will succeed him. Judge Bates was expected to-day. Gen. Hancock and his staff will be in this city to-day, on his way to Washington.

A correspondent, under date of Washington, says the measures adopted there seem to be those being carried out by the people, who evidently attend to satisfy their wishes. Gen. Grant is expected to arrive at Washington on the 7th inst. Gen. Sherman is at the highest point of favor.

Of course, the evidence against Booth and Jefferson's confederates is strengthened by the confessions which the weak Harrold, who is in custody, has made. He says that on the night of the 14th of April, 1865, and before the murder of President Lincoln, Booth, Atzerodt, Surratt, and himself met at Howe Hollow, Prince George's county, Maryland, and there and then entered into the conspiracy with the consent of each other to kill President Lincoln, Vice President Johnson, and Secretary Seward, and that they were then and there to meet at Booth's house in Washington, on the 15th of April, 1865, which is dark.

The belief prevails from the speeches of Gov. Dix, Hiscock and Hon. Wm. M. Evarts that the Democratic party will not put a man on the ticket for Governor of New York, but in favor of the highest order of Democrat.

Of course, the evidence against Booth and Jefferson's confederates is strengthened by the testimony of Lieutenant Dana, of the New York Herald, who says that Booth and Jefferson Davis, Clement C. Clay, Beverly Tucker, and Richmond Clay met in Montreal on the 5th of September, 1864, and that Booth was there in their way. They will probably be executed on Friday, unless some unexpected and more important fields of delay open before the assassins.

The funeral of the late lamented Booth, under General Hardie, with Kilpatrick's cavalry, will escort to Baltimore, for the purpose of preserving and maintaining order. Secretary Stanton was in Washington, Tuesday, and it is said that they are ready for Texas. The grand review of Sherman's army, which was to have taken place on the 19th inst., has been abandoned by the order of the commander of everything, as it will be impossible for the volunteer force of all persons, including officers now in the field.

All the private papers and confidential letters found in the possession of Booth and his accomplices have been placed in the hands of the Secretary of War, and will be used by the prosecution. Judge Advocate General Holt and Judge Bingham have charge of the case.

The Secretary of War has issued an order that all persons in the United States who have been engaged in the rebellion, and who have not taken the oath of allegiance, will be required to do so, and

Chicago Tribune.
WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 1865

MISFORTUNE.

The grains of sand has become the city. Sorrowful soldiers meet at consultation with Victim's name, and sympathetic shudder ripple in solemn waves. A Nation's grief has fields unknown years. A Nation's grief has fields unknown years. A Nation's grief has fields unknown years

TRI-WEEKLY

TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 2, 1865.

THE FUNERAL OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

We will be entitled and anticipated pleasure which the announcement to-day of the Funeral Ceremonies in Chicago, will give to the people of this city. Every feeling of the heart, the sensibility has been rendered more acute yesterday, by the sad tragedy, the painful duty and most heartfelt sorrow, which the sad news occasions by that sad intelligence, will be relieved to-day by the pleasure anticipated in the ceremonies, the solemn procession, military, civic, sociological, associations, will form the scene conducive to the most heartfelt and solemn reflections. Through the line of the procession from the Court House to the Depot, the streets will be adorned with emblems, suggestive of the sympathy of the people for the nation's bereavement. Every house will be draped in mourning, and the whole city will be in keeping with the solemnity of the occasion. Thank God that He has ordained that the sun of the 4th of March, although it appears to be overshadowed by the clouds of the tempest, should shine forth in all its splendor on the 4th of April, and that the weather during the day and evening preceding, has been so fine and pleasant, as to enable the people to make the necessary preparations for the occasion. Business is largely suspended with the holiday feeling, and the whole city is in the habiliments of mourning. Every one will be anxious to view the procession, and the arrangements are such that all Chicago yesterday.

The people of this city have no spirit of boasting in the solemnity of the occasion that they have been favored with the honor of having the remains of the lamented President, have been selected, surpassed all others in the length of the duration from the 13th. It is proper to state, that the weather during the day and evening of the 13th and yesterday, has been so fine, as to prevent, in the most satisfactory manner, all the inconveniences attendant on the procession. Doubtless a larger audience will view the body during the time it may be exposed to the National dead, but yesterday was the day for the procession, and to-day for the ceremonies, and the people of the people of Chicago, from the best information we can obtain, are satisfied with the arrangements of yesterday.

The general tone of the demonstrations, so far those which have preceded it in other cities, and the solemnity of the occasion, we anticipate, will be in the exercises to-day of the occasion. Thank God that He has ordained this sad tragedy to take place at the time of a national grief for such a sad as that which has just been consummated. Never before during the times which have tried the souls of men, has there been such a universal sorrow for the loss of a ruler, as that which has been manifested in the sad tragedy of which we write. Never before has such a universal grief for such a sad as that which has just been consummated. Never before during the times which have tried the souls of men, has there been such a universal sorrow for the loss of a ruler, as that which has been manifested in the sad tragedy of which we write. Never before has such a universal grief for such a sad as that which has just been consummated. Never before during the times which have tried the souls of men, has there been such a universal sorrow for the loss of a ruler, as that which has been manifested in the sad tragedy of which we write.

THE PRESIDENT'S FUNERAL.

Reception of the Remains of Abraham Lincoln in Chicago.

Gathering of the People—Forming to Receive the Body—Decorations of Residences.

THE FUNERAL TRAIN FROM MICHIGAN CITY.

Arrival of the Cortege in Chicago—Strewing the Coffin with Flowers—The Arch and Funeral Car.

The Procession—The Remains Escorted Through the Streets by Nearly 40,000 People.

IN THE COURT HOUSE.

THE BODY LAID IN STATE.

The Coffin and Canopy—Sepulchral Funeral Lights—The Embalming Process.

VIEWING THE BODY AT NIGHT.

THE WHOLE CITY IN MOURNING.

Torch-Light Procession To-Night—Departure of the Funeral Cortege for Springfield.

Although a portion of Abraham Lincoln, the honest and good man, the practical and aggressive statesman, the wise and sagacious leader, the brilliant lawyer, the kindest and most genial of companions, the husband and most affectionate of husbands, the father and most indulgent of parents, the friend and most faithful of friends, who possessed the confidence and esteem of the people of the United States, to the fullest extent that any man ever did, is now in the grave, and the people of Chicago, from fifteen to twenty miles around, are assembled to pay the last tribute of respect and affection to his remains, previous to their deposit in the tomb, there is a portion of him which lives and will live in the hearts of the people, and in the history of the country, which will be read and studied by millions yet unborn, and which will be cherished as a priceless legacy by the latest generations that on the face of the earth.

Never before, in the history of this country, has there been such a universal sorrow for the loss of a ruler, as that which has been manifested in the sad tragedy of which we write. Never before has such a universal grief for such a sad as that which has just been consummated. Never before during the times which have tried the souls of men, has there been such a universal sorrow for the loss of a ruler, as that which has been manifested in the sad tragedy of which we write.

ALONG THE ROUTE.

Every demonstration of respect and sorrow that could be shown by the people of the country through which the remains passed, was manifested. At Buffalo, Rochester, Albany, Utica, Syracuse, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, Jackson, Kalamazoo, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Harrisburg, Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Columbus

Chicago Tribune.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 1865.

THE CITY.

TRIPP FOR STAFFORDSHIRE.—Extra clothing may well be provided on the inquiry, and with the occasion for the night. For the accommodation of those who wish to go, a train will leave the depot at 10 o'clock this morning.

TRIPP FOR THE NORTHWEST.—Those of our citizens who desire to visit the Pinery will have their opportunity to-day. Excursion tickets will be sold at the Union and Northwestern depots, May 3d, at 2 o'clock, p. m.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The Library Association of Music will hold its annual meeting at 11 o'clock, when he will be elected Directors for the year. The Board of Directors will meet immediately after the meeting to the hour of 1 o'clock, p. m.

ANNUAL.—The members of the Board of Trade will meet at their rooms this morning at 10 o'clock, when they will proceed to the Court House to attend the funeral services. Tickets to the door may be had at the rooms of the Board.

FOR THE FALLEN.—Arrangements are being made in the South Division for the benefit of the Sanitary Fair which is to be held in this city during the month of November next. Tickets to the door will be sold for 50 cents.

FOR THE FALLEN.—Arrangements are being made in the South Division for the benefit of the Fair which is to be held in this city during the month of November next. Tickets to the door will be sold for 50 cents. Any other arrangements have been completed, and the Fair will be held in the South Division.

ANN MARIE.—The first number of a weekly Catholic visitor, "Ann Marie, the Lady of the Virgin Mary, and Sunday the fifth which being the Feast of the Ascension, will be published in this city. It will be edited by the Rev. Father Quinn, of the University. The publication is mostly confined to the Catholic Church, and will be published in the interest of the Catholic Church.

VIEW OF OUR POSITION.—A very fine view of the city can be obtained from the top of the Court House, showing the burned city, railway, &c., but the ascent is rather fatiguing, and those who wish to go up will have to apply at the Sheriff's office.

TABLEAUX.—The Tableaux "With Us Still Yet," in aid of the soldiers' monument, will be given this evening at Bryan Hall. Our fellow members of this body, Mrs. Judge Drummond, Mrs. Judge Wilson, and Mrs. Judge Skinner, will be present, assisted by many young ladies. The entertainment will be one of the most interesting of the season, and we hope to see a full house.

THE PRESENT TRAFFIC.—To-day—Our newsmen have received a large number of the last issue and hastefully entertained upon the fact that the demand for the paper was greater than the supply. The newsmen were not to blame for the circumstance, for they had not the slightest idea that there would be such a demand for the paper. Those who were disappointed will please call to-day, and they will be supplied. The paper will be sold at the usual price.

N. Y. PAPERS.—The Latest Central Committee of the Republican party have decided that the weekly TRIBUNE will be discontinued by mail on October 1st, 1865. Those who wish to subscribe for the paper will please send in their names before that time.

THE LATEST TELEGRAM.—The latest telegram we have received is from Gen. Grant, in which he orders a salute of thirty guns to be fired at sunrise, and thirty guns at sunset, in honor of the late President Lincoln.

CHAMBERLAIN AND NATIONAL.—An address will be delivered by Rufus Hosmer this evening next to Henry W. Smith, Esq., of the Tribune, on the subject of Chamberlain and National Currency.

THE CHAMBERLAIN AND NATIONAL.—An address will be delivered by Rufus Hosmer this evening next to Henry W. Smith, Esq., of the Tribune, on the subject of Chamberlain and National Currency.

GENERAL GRANT.—Lieutenant General Grant, Colonel Dunlap received yesterday a telegram announcing the arrival on private business in Washington to-day. He will remain in the city for a few days, and will be pleased to see his friends. He will leave for Chicago on Thursday, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Grant. Preparations should be made to receive him with the greatest attention.

HOME GUARDS.—Another call for soldiers' graves is made. It is not a patriotic one, but is the call of humanity. Let every man who has a friend in the army, or who has a friend who has a friend in the army, look after his own, and see that his grave is properly attended to. If he is dead, attend to his burial. Do not let the vultures of the battle-field pick his bones, and let the wolves howl over his grave. If he is dead, attend to his burial. Do not let the vultures of the battle-field pick his bones, and let the wolves howl over his grave. If he is dead, attend to his burial. Do not let the vultures of the battle-field pick his bones, and let the wolves howl over his grave.

NOAH PERKINPATH OF LIFE.—A large dollar bee of Abraham Lincoln has been issued from the factory for Sunday bread for Springfield, where the body of the deceased President will be interred. The bee is of the usual size, and is made of the finest material. It is to be sold at the usual price, and is to be sold at the usual price. The bee is to be sold at the usual price, and is to be sold at the usual price.

DAMAGED.—Our 8th Ward Alderman, Mr. Wm. Wheeler, was thrown between Green and Indiana streets, on Monday, by a runaway horse, and severely injured, he says, by some unknown person. He was taken to his residence, and is now under the care of a physician.

ON Sunday evening the grocery store of Mr. Wm. Wheeler, on the corner of Green and Indiana streets, was entered by some unknown person, and the contents of the drawers and safe of the store were taken. The amount of money taken is not known.

THE SCENE.—The scene on the streets on Monday was very sad. Many a heart was filled with sorrow, and many a tear was shed by those who had lost their friends. The streets were filled with mourning that could find no relief. The streets were filled with mourning that could find no relief. The streets were filled with mourning that could find no relief.

THE PROCESSION.

The procession was formed according to the following order, and moved from the Court House to the depot, by entire the Court House. The line extended from the Court House to the depot, and was formed as follows:

ENTIRE SOLDIERS.

Officers and men of the regular army and navy, and marines in the city, and the rank of Brigadier General and upwards, and the Governor of Illinois, and the Governor of Indiana, and the Governor of Iowa, and the Governor of Kansas, and the Governor of Missouri, and the Governor of Nebraska, and the Governor of Wisconsin, and the Governor of Minnesota, and the Governor of Michigan, and the Governor of Ohio, and the Governor of Pennsylvania, and the Governor of New York, and the Governor of Massachusetts, and the Governor of Connecticut, and the Governor of Rhode Island, and the Governor of Vermont, and the Governor of New Hampshire, and the Governor of Maine, and the Governor of Delaware, and the Governor of Maryland, and the Governor of Virginia, and the Governor of West Virginia, and the Governor of Kentucky, and the Governor of Tennessee, and the Governor of North Carolina, and the Governor of South Carolina, and the Governor of Georgia, and the Governor of Florida, and the Governor of Alabama, and the Governor of Mississippi, and the Governor of Louisiana, and the Governor of Texas, and the Governor of Arkansas, and the Governor of California, and the Governor of Oregon, and the Governor of Nevada, and the Governor of Utah, and the Governor of Colorado, and the Governor of New Mexico, and the Governor of Arizona, and the Governor of Idaho, and the Governor of Montana, and the Governor of Wyoming, and the Governor of Dakota, and the Governor of Indian Territory, and the Governor of Alaska, and the Governor of Hawaii, and the Governor of Puerto Rico, and the Governor of Cuba, and the Governor of Jamaica, and the Governor of Haiti, and the Governor of Santo Domingo, and the Governor of Trinidad, and the Governor of Barbados, and the Governor of Grenada, and the Governor of St. Vincent, and the Governor of St. Lucia, and the Governor of Dominica, and the Governor of Antigua, and the Governor of St. Kitts, and the Governor of Nevis, and the Governor of Montserrat, and the Governor of Anguilla, and the Governor of Tortola, and the Governor of Virgin Gorda, and the Governor of Anegada, and the Governor of Jost Van Dyke, and the Governor of Tortola, and the Governor of Virgin Gorda, and the Governor of Anegada, and the Governor of Jost Van Dyke.

The following gentlemen, forming the escort, were then introduced to the audience, and were received with great applause:

Gen. Fred. Knapp, Chief of Staff, Col. Wm. Hoffman, Aid-de-Camp, Col. Wm. Hoffman, Aid-de-Camp, Col. Wm. Hoffman, Aid-de-Camp